Clark County Community Foundation Inc. Announces the 2022 Grant Cycle Recipients

The Clark County Community Foundation (CCCF) is pleased to announce the 2022 Grant Cycle Award Recipients. With the help of generous donors, the Foundation is able to award the following organizations, needed funds to help accomplish their missions, move forward with projects and benefit Clark County residents.

Congratulations to these area nonprofit organizations who have received funding this year through the Foundation's Clark County Community Fund:

Badger Boys State Inc.- Sponsorship of Clark County youth;
City of Loyal – Splash Pad Project;
City of Neillsville – Parks & Recreation Department – Pickle Ball Court Project;
Clark County Health Department – First Aid Kits;
Central Clark County Community Childcare Center – Toddler play equipment;
Neillsville Improvement Corporation – Rails to Trails Project;
Tractors for Autism & Disabilities Inc – Computer & Software; and Willard Historical Society – Settler's Park maintenance

Area nonprofits, charitable, education, and service organizations continue to face financial and volunteer challenges, and the demand for nonprofit services and programs continues to remain at record levels. The Foundation is grateful to all Donors and Volunteers who help make these financial grants possible.
