Clark County Community Foundation Inc. Announces 2019 Grant Recipients

The Clark County Community Foundation (CCCF) is pleased to announce the 2019 Grant Cycle Award Recipients. Because generous donors have supported the Foundation, these organizations will have additional funds to help accomplish their missions, move forward with projects and benefit Clark County residents.

Congratulations to these area nonprofit organizations who have received funding through various unrestricted Field of Interest (FOI) Funds and the Clark County Community Fund:

Page Forward – Volunteers for Literacy in Clark Co – Clark Co Community Fund / Education FOI;
Central Clark County Community Childcare Center – Education FOI Fund;
Village of Withee Public Library – Clark Co Community Fund;
City of Loyal – Public Library – Clark Co Community Fund;
UW-Extension Clark County – Seniors FOI Fund
Clark County Assoc. for Home and Community Education - Clark Co Community Fund /Youth FOI;
Clark County Health Department – Clark Co Community Fund

Area nonprofit, charitable, education, and service organizations face many challenges: a high demand for the services they provide, reduced resources from which to draw upon, and the ever-present need for volunteer support. Finding ways to help meet their needs and face challenges, is a major reason for establishing and operating the CCCF and the Clark County Community Fund.

To learn more about the CCCF funds and its grant and scholarship programs, request a speaker for your group / organization, or to make a tax-deductible donation, contact the Foundation by mail at: Clark County Community Foundation Inc., PO Box 116, Loyal, WI 54446, by email at: information@clarkccf.org, by phone: at 715.937.6167 or by visiting our website: www.clarkccf.org.
