Clark County Community Foundation Inc. Announces the 2021 Grant Cycle Recipients

The Clark County Community Foundation (CCCF) is pleased to announce the 2021 Grant Cycle Award Recipients. With the help of generous donors, the Foundation is able to award the following organizations, needed funds to help accomplish their missions, move forward with projects and benefit Clark County residents.

Congratulations to these area nonprofit organizations who have received funding through the Foundation's various unrestricted Field of Interest Funds and the Clark County Community Fund:

City of Loyal;
Clark County Health Department;
Central Clark County Community Childcare Center;
Community Thanksgiving – Calvary Lutheran Church
Loyal High School;
Neillsville Improvement Corporation;
Owen Public Library;
Smiling for Samuel Inc.;
UCC – Neillsville; and
Willard Historical Society

Area nonprofits, charitable, education, and service organizations continue to face many challenges – especially during the current pandemic. The demand for nonprofit services and programs has never been higher and finding resources from which to draw upon has never been more critical for each of them. The Foundation is grateful to all Donors and Volunteers who help make providing these financial grants possible.
