2022 Scholarship Programs Announced by Clark County Community Foundation, Inc.

Applications are now available for the Clark County Community Foundation, Inc. (CCCF) 2022 Scholarship Programs. For the eighth year, the Foundation will award several scholarships to eligible seniors graduating in 2022 from Clark County Wisconsin area high schools.

Students may apply for the following Scholarship programs, depending on various criteria:

- Clark County Community Scholarship ($300 several) – Clark Cty is primary residence;
- Teresa Johnson Memorial Scholarship (one $400) – Clark Cty is primary residence;
- Harry and Esther Kin Memorial Scholarship (one $300) – Neillsville HS graduate;
- Erpenbach Family Memorial Scholarship ($500) – Neillsville or Granton HS graduate;
- Kourtland House Scholarship (various amounts) – Greenwood HS graduate and/or employed by Kourtland House Residential Living, Greenwood WI

Interested students are encouraged to visit the CCCF website at www.clarkccf.org for more information and to download the necessary application forms. School guidance departments will also have access to the scholarship forms. To be considered for this year's scholarship cycle, applications must be received by the CCCF or postmarked on or before March 31, 2022. The CCCF Scholarship Selection Committee, composed of Directors and community volunteers, will review all applications and select the scholarship recipients by the end of April 2022. Scholarships will be presented to the recipients at their respective Senior Awards programs. All applicants will receive correspondence from the Foundation by the end of May 2022.

As a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt nonprofit organization, the CCCF gratefully accepts donations from individuals, businesses, or organizations throughout the year. These donations benefit the citizens and communities of Clark County through its scholarship and grant programs. Individuals and families interested in establishing a scholarship fund "In Memory of" or "In Honor of" a loved one should contact the Foundation for more information.
